

Dr. Abraham Eninla is a Data Analytics Consultant, Microsoft Certified Trainer, Leadership Coach, and Corporate Learning Facilitator with extensive experience delivering practical, results-driven training to professionals across finance, government, and corporate sectors.

He specializes in Microsoft Excel, Power BI, SQL, Python for Data Analytics, Microsoft 365, Financial Analysis, and AI-powered business solutions. Abraham holds professional certifications in Applied Data Science (WorldQuant University), Microsoft Power BI, Google Data Analytics, ACCA Data Analytics, Google AI, and other industry-recognized technology and analytics credentials.

He has successfully trained accountants, auditors, executives, regulators, and business professionals in transforming data into actionable insights for better decision-making. His training approach emphasizes real-world case studies, hands-on exercises, and practical business applications, enabling participants to immediately apply their learning in the workplace.

Abraham is passionate about helping organizations build data-driven cultures by equipping professionals with modern analytical, digital, and AI skills that improve productivity, reporting, and strategic decision-making.